

- 24 May Some of the hired men use Ministry horses to attend her funeral "away beyond East Troy ... in a Catholic burying ground."
- 26 May C.M. took some medicine to the Welch boy in the Niskayuna house whose mother just died.
- 2 June Dr. Wade came to vaccinate the children.
- 4 June "A minister }came here to convert us to the true religion as he seemed to think we are in error. He stayed all night and went away without any converts."
- 9 June Accident happened to a team. They ran away with young man named Walden and young woman named Alvira Winn. Wagon so damaged Shakers loaned them one to go home with.
- 12 June D. Sherman takes Elizabeth Seely and Lucy Fuller to Schenectady "to get a few things for the rooms the public use."
- 17 June C. Miller, Ann B., Jannet Angus & Moriah Treadway go to the river farm and called to see the orphan children at the Niskayuna house.
- 19 June Take a "load of paper rags" to the tin shop and purchased some tin of Andrew Van Patten.
- 27 June Fred Griffenham takes his leave of us today. He goes to Albany to be settled with.
- 28 June Geo. Price returns from NYC and brings two boys with him,. They have a sick mother who is not expected to live long.
- 23 June - Much dealing in strawberries.
- 11 July
- 24 July "A stage load of people came here from the Home Lawn. ^(on Rte. 9 near Hurtonville) One or two more coach loads were here at the same time. They traded some."
- 1 Aug Ruth Whipple came here this afternoon to get us to take her little girl, 12 years of age.
- 2 Aug C. Miller, Lydia Annas, Jannet Angus & Lucy Fuller go to Albany to see about a cooking range for the 1st House kitchen.
- 5 Aug Sarah Dean took the little girls south in the woods for wintergreen. As they started out quite late, in the evening quite a number of brethren and sisters went out in the woods to hunt for them.
- 6 Aug Ezekial Copley "closed his life."
- 14 Aug Adelaide Ingham and Samantha Bowie go to 2d Family to help make soap.
- 18 Aug Joseph Pelham spoke to audience at public meeting and "gave them a very good sermon."
- 20 Aug Took Phebe Smith, Adelaide Ingham & Maria Finch to see the cooking range.