

- 10 Feb "Peter Whitbeck brought a man and woman from the depot who came from St. Louis and are going on a tour to Europe. Their name is Tuthill. The woman professes to be a clairvoyant medium and practices medicine. They wished to visit this place and get some information about the Shakers. We had some conversation with them and gave them some books to read. They wished to stay a day or so, said they wanted to get medicine when they return from England, the woman's native place, and she thinks she has a mission there."
