

- 6 July Sisters picking currants and gooseberries for jelly. "They do not put the sugar to it until fall."
Patrick Burk soldered them up in the cans.
- 15 July Elder Austin and company returned in good health and spirits.
- 22 July Daniel is directing haying at River farm. Thomas Almond at Osborn Place or South Farm # 2, and Staunton at home. Have 20 hired men.
- 25 July Two women from Troy walked from depot with 2 little boys to have taken but they are too young. C. Miller took them back to the depot.
- 26 July Philip went to the depot to meet his sister, Lucretia Smith Miller, a recent widow.
- 1 Aug Went to factor at Burnt Hills to see about having their wool worked. Other families have had theirs worked there for the last season and had good satisfaction.
Justice Harwood came and spent the day. "He is a great sufferer in the body."
- 15 Aug Mrs. Tompson came with a women from Troy desirous of having a little boy taken but we did not take him.
A widow with four children came to have 2 boys taken, the oldest not quite 10. Elder Chauncy being here took the oldest boy home with him.
- 16 Aug Considerable company today, some from Schenectady, others from Albany, all were very anxious for dinner but we refused them all for we could not possibly do it.
Philip (Smith) took Phebe Ann, Magdalena and Barbara after whortleberries. Chas. Brackett went with them, it being almost dangerous for females to be out in these days.
Got 5 pecks.
- 22 Aug Elizabeth Youngs died at South Family
- 26 Aug Albena Hosack's mother and another woman came to visit. Eldress Harriet Bullard of SF here, the women went home with her to see how she would like it.
- 27 Aug The air is filled with smoke, probably the woods are on fire.
- 30 Aug Wed. A German woman (Hannah Ricket) with a boy and girl, 7 and 5, came to join. She ~~went this morning to get the sanction of the Ministry~~ last night to SF and Sister Harriet came bame here with them this morning to get the sanction of the Ministry. The women went to Albany, the children stayed here.
The grandmother of the Jameson boys came to see them.
- 31 Aug Boy, 12 or 13 years, named Easterly came on Monday but they sent him back to have one of his parents come with him. His mother brought him today.
- 12 Sept Man brought 3 Sisters of Charity, dressed in their usual way, from Troy. We gave them dinner and they enjoyed their visit well.
- 15 Sept Some went to Van Vranken's after milkweed or silk grass.
- 18 Sept After washing and ironing done, sisters cut 5 barrels of pears for drying.