

- 18 Aug Five sisters from St. Joseph's Catholic Church visited and "appeared to be much pleased with their visit among us."
- 22 Aug Two priests from same church visited.
- 12 Sept "Two loads of people came here from NY to see the Shakers and buy some of their baskets."
- 23 Sept A. Clyne came to see his little boy who has been here two weeks.
- 24 Sept The Crandle woman came to see her two boys.
- 1 Oct The sisters that have been on a journey went to the Ministry's Shop in a.m. to make them a visit and the rest of the morning it took to clean the wagon (or pay the fiddler, as the story goes).
- 2 Oct Ann and Lydia made a little assortment of baskets as specimens to be sent to Linn of NY.
- 6 Oct Judge Ira Harris and wife came for a short visit.
The uncle of Alice came after her - they had written to him to come and get her.
- 19 Oct Little Douglas' mother came to see him. The lady she lives with came with her, they walked 8 miles and had to return the same day as the woman had an infant at home.
- 24 Oct The Shirley Shaker Community have sold their cotton factory and Elder Grove Blanchard is now trying to settle with the other communities who lent them money when they were first starting.
- 27 Oct Jesse went to Albany to see about buying the manure from one of the canal stables.
Brooms are taken to be shipped to Mobile, Ala.
- 30 Oct Their drying house was burned to the ground in the afternoon. Not discovered until it was too late to save. Filled with chicory to dry.
- 1 Nov Again went to Albany on law case with Peck but is again postponed.
- 4 Nov William Boyce's mother came to see him.
- 5 Nov. Wm. Boyce decides to go with his mother so they are taken to Albany and will go to NY on evening boat.
- 12 Nov Jesse and two of hired men take 7 hogs to James Stark to be butchered. They average a little over 300 lbs. each.
- 18 Nov Last of public meetings.
- 9 Dec Hester Gustin of NF fell down on the steps and broke her hip.
- 22 Dec Lucy Fuller and Sarah Taylor cut out and finish off 22 sets of table mats this week and brought them to store at Office.
- 24 Dec "One of the boys that has been here a few months has a bad humor and they send him to his father in Brooklyn to be doctored. His father sent money to pay his passage and some of the brethren put him on the cars today."