

1867

- 2 Jan Ruth is finishing off some little boxes Eldress Ann has framed. Lydia is making baskets.
- 4 Jan Mary has made 4 doz. baskets since she went out of the kitchen.
- 15 Jan It is extremely cold these days. Hired men are drawing muck on the orchard and manure and coal from the city.
- 24 Jan "Betsey Stone and a woman and her daughter, she is a spiritualist and has 2 small girls at the NF. They came to visit the school and came to the CF to have dinner."
- 29 Jan Maria Shepperman brought her 14 year old daughter, Josephine, to join her younger sisters.
- 31 Jan Brother Joseph Pelham taken to sick house. One eye entirely blind plus other infirmities.
- 1 Feb "A great many poor men came along today begging for work, food and the like."
"Little Agnes was brought back today and the old woman meant we should keep her but we did not."
- 9 Feb "We have no company about these days; if they love us they cannot get here to tell us of it."
- 18 Feb "Elizabeth Smith's mother came and took her away with her. She has not been here a year. They being Catholics, there could be nothing to prevent it. The girl felt very bad."
A woman came to leave her daughter and was sent to SF.
- 23 Feb Thomas Almond left with his brother-in-law and another young man.
- 1 Mar Adda Woods left.
- 10 Mar Thomas Almond and Adda Woods came back after Adda's things.
- 12 Mar Elder Giles is partitioning the NE chamber of the Office.
- 14 Mar A German girl from Troy brought her little brother and sister to be taken.
- 25 Mar C. Miller and Jesse went to Albany about Peck law case. The opposition lawyer and Peck "had mostly been examined" and the case was postponed for 10 days.
- 3 Apr "Chauncey Miller and Jesse went to Schenectady with C. Copley to sign some papers relative to the NF buying the Gibson place.
- 9 Apr Chauncy & Jesse to Albany about law suit - gave their testimony and in a few days they will know the result of the case.
- 10 Apr Jesse & Freegift to Albany so Freegift could chose lumber to make some bedsteads for the Office.
Mother of the two Crandell boys came to see them.
- 12 Apr Brother Joseph Pelham is very feeble in body and mind.
Got a sack of coffee and chest of tea "so we can drink and be merry."