

- 26 July (cont.) The mother and sister of the Pflug boys came to see them and stayed until Monday.
- 29 July Clarence's mother and little brother and uncle came to see him and bind him to Charles and the shoemaking trade, but Clarence decides to go with his mother instead.
- 1 Aug The Treadway boys go home to Bridgeport, Conn.
- 2 Aug Anna Purtell's brother-in-law came to see if Anna was there; she had gone away about 6 p.m. the day before.
- 7 Aug Ruth has gone to the shed to work on feather dusters. Lydia has begun on some very large baskets. Mason is repairing the large bridge by the washhouse.
- 16 Aug Has rained about 5 inches in this week and today it rained so hard all day they had to bring the chickens into the house to keep them from drowning.
- 24 Aug Benjamin Chick runs canning operation and has a bed in the canning house for him to sleep. They have canned about 300 doz. cans of corn or succotash this week.
- 25 Aug Public meeting. Now have no speaker so usually DABuckingham reads to them.
- 31 Aug 92 doz. cans tomatoes canned today.
- 10 Sept Sisters work on tomatoes in a.m.; in p.m. they cut 14 barrels of apples to dry.
- 15 Sept Brother John Robe came to speak at public meeting. Excellent.
- 17 Sept "All hands commence the work at the canning house in good spirits but few in number."
- 20 Sept The Crandell woman came and took her boys home with her.
- 22 Sept Elder Giles Avery spoke at the public meeting.
- 26 Sept "Mrs. Pruyn, son of Judge Parker's daughter and her sister, brought as their guests Lord Russels son and his wife, a daughter of one of the Lords."
- 28 Sept Finish canning for the present.
- 4 Oct Canning tomatoes again. 80 doz. today.
- 12 Oct Go to Albany to meet group from Groveland who have been visiting in Lebanon. They are Henry Cantrell, Justin Budine, Laura Dole, Lavinia Dutcher & Polly Lee.
- 13 Oct After public meeting, General Sheridan and Col. Schuyler Crosby called and six from South America, some of whom could not speak one word of English. Nearly all the family came and shook hands with them.
- 16 Oct The father of the Pflug boys came to see them and stayed all night.
- 19 Oct Have had a new drying shed built and it is heated for the first time with its rack filled with chicory root.