

- 20 Oct Sun. Public meeting is closed for the season. Quite a number of carriages came and the people were much disappointed.... "We felt almost lost without visitors."
- 23 Oct "They finish digging potatoes at the South farm. Women dug most of them. C. Miller paid 20-30¢ per barrel for them. There were 301 barrels. The women then picked the popcorn - 100 barrels.
Louisa Fairchild died at 2d Order where she had lived for nearly 50 years.
- 26 Oct Widow Townsend, daughter of Gen. Van Rensselaer, and Mrs. Van Sanford and their children, visited and walked around some.
- 29 Oct Michael and Patrick Burk work at the extract business and Philip Smith tends to the drying of roots.
- 1 Nov A girl Ida who had been there for two weeks is taken to Albany to be returned to her mother in Ballston Spa. "She did not prove to be the right kind."
- 2 Nov John and Patrick Burk went to West Troy to make a fence around their father's grave.
- 6 Nov Pamela Wicks came to visit. "It is '30 years since she saw many of the sisters but she knew them all."
- 15 Nov. Robert Wagan brought more chair frames from Mt. Lebanon - Lydia pays $44 for 18 frames.
- 18 Nov Katie Bickford's father and brother came at 2 a.m., rang the doorbell 3 or 4 times, C. Miller got up, let them in and put them to bed.
- 3 Dec Stanton Buckingham goes to 2d Family to see Justice Harwood - it is thought he will not survive many days.
- 4 Dec "No company but beggars."
- 12 Dec Robert Wagan came with chairs for dining room at dwelling and got some canned stuff for the Delevan House.
- 17 Dec "The ministry go to all the families to administer the yearly gift."
Justice Harwood died last midnight, aged 78. "Has spent a long and useful life and been Trustee a great part of the time."
- 20 Dec "Some beggars. Among the number, two men went to the men's house to eat and warm themselves and stole Wm. Gilroy's coat and comforter. Thos. Gilroy pursued, and with some of the neighbors, caught the oldest man who had the comforter on. Took them to Albany
- 21 Dec Justice Cole sentenced the man to 3 months in penitentiary.
- 25 Dec Had an excellent meeting with the Ministry and 2d Order. Oysters for dinner. No hired men for dinner, one to supper.
- 31 Dec "A woman came from beyond Albany to give the Shakers a boy 2 months old. We declined the offer."