

- 7 Apr 18" of snow. "They shovel the paths as though it was December."
- 9 Apr Jesse froze one side of his face it was so cold and wintry.
- 10 Apr Lydia is making white Lancaster quilts or spreads for the Office use.
- 14 Apr Lydia is making splint fans. (The authoress of the journals at this point is Lydia Annas, I believe.)
- 20 Apr Lydia is braiding fans.
- 24 Apr Asenath Pennington died this afternoon rather sudden. She walked over to the shop and was weighed a day or two ago.
- 26 Apr Funeral at 2 p.m. "Sisters followed to the grave."
- 29 Apr Nehemiah and his boys went to the river farm to set out onions.
- 30 Apr C. Miller has had 220 apple trees, 50 plum and 10 cherry trees set out at South No. 2 farm and on the hill at home 100 plum, 75 apple and 50 peach trees.
- 5 May There was a general turnout to clean the Meeting House - 18 - all here to dinner. They brought wherewith to pay their way.
- 10 May Hancock has had a fire - two buildings lost - $7000.
- 11 May Mon. C. Miller went to Albany to get things to start school. He met Albina Hossick and her mother trying to get a ride out to the Shakers. The mother took the night boat back to NY, CM brought Albina out.
- 12 May "Albina is around trying to enjoy the sweet air. Her face is in a dreadful condition, she is truly an object of pity."
- 13 May "Clara Gade, mother of the Gade children, came from the NF and went right to the Ministry's Shop to see if they would consent to take the little girls back but the answer was 'nay.'"
- 15 May George took Albina to Albany and put her on the boat to go back to her mother. "We did not feel to take the burden upon us byt could not help pitying her."
- 17 May Sun. "We had the general yearly Society meeting. Elder Daniel (Boler) led it. Elder Giles read some at two different times. Altogether we had a good meeting. It lasted 3 hours."
- 28 May Betsey Stone and Lycina McDonald return to Mt. Lebanon to live. They have been here about 4 years.
- 3 June "A dentist by the name of William Clark came to see Ephraim and they have concluded to keep him to help Ephraim."
- 4 June The mother of the Shepperman girls came to see them.
- 5 June Marie and Carrie Shepperman went back with their mother, leaving little Augusta alone.