

- 2 Sept "C. Miller is trying to be released and settle down in quiet old age." (Only 54 yrs.)
- 4 Sept The supper table brought the news that Albert Lomas is going to go to the SF to live with Elder Issachar (Bates).
- 5 Sept Chauncey went in the orchard and caught a thief - took him by the collar and led him down home.
- 12 Sept Yesterday and last night it rained 4 1/2 inches. The dam at the SF mill pond broke and let water off in the CF pond with such a rush that the CF pond rose "and flooded the Office, filled the cellars full and some inches in kitchen. Sisters began sweeping and mopping before 4 a.m. and managed to get breakfast for the hired men. Lydia is 52.
- 13 Sept Brother Albert Lomas moved today to SF - "quite a trial for him."
Canning corn and saving the husks. Sold a wagon load to Sisters of Charity for $19.
- 18 Sept Elizabeth Brown came from Brooklyn with her two boys to have taken.
Fri
- 21 Sept (Mon) Elizabeth Brown and her boys go to Albany with one of the hired men.
- 24 Sept SF drying kiln burned - filled with apples they had been cutting for two days.
- 30 Sept One of Judge Parker's daughters that married Pruyn came with 2 ladies from England.
"They seemed much pleased with their visit, bought a few things to take with them."
(Other visitors to the store are noted from time to time and it is mentioned when they buy baskets or a chair.)
- 8 Oct Ruth is making peacock dusters.
Michael Murphy left. "He has tended the engine and been a very good hand."
- 9 Oct "A man from Troy came with a horse and covered vehicle containing his apparatus for taking stereotype views of our village. He had dinner."
"A man came in the dress of '76 to represent Washington. He is 1/2 crazy if not wholly so."
- 10 Oct "The photographer, James Irving, came again today and brought his wife with him. He has taken a great many views of our place and of all the brothers and sisters he could get out of doors."
- 12 Oct A man and woman brought a little boy and left him on trial.
- 15 Oct Chicory has been raised on the river farm and at Niskayuna and Daniel Sherman with Philip Wiseman and John Burk work on making extract from it.
- 21 Oct Jesse went to Schenectady to see about brooms he is having made there.
Lydia is making baskets.
Samantha is running white wax into molds to put in baskets.
- 23 Oct Irving sent some of his pictures and "they are very good specimens."