

- 5 Feb "CM is getting a bill or something in the Legislature to have a policeman in our town or vicinity."
- 11 Feb Their teamsters are drawing slate to the SF and cobblestone for the 2d Family; then alternate drawing lumber to the two families. (Getting ready to rebuild their barns)
- 15 Feb CM went to Albany and Troy. "He expected the cabbage suit was coming on and went to get his witnesses but was informed it had been postponed by the opposite party."
- 19 Feb CM went to Albany to appear before the committee relative to having a detective in this town with power to act, etc."
- 1 Mar Sam Waterman and brother-in-law are working in CF mill making window and door frames for the WF barns.
- 21 Mar Emeline Clark died at 2d Family, about 75 yrs., had lived there from her childhood.
- 26 Mar "Frederick Bisgrove and George Duck quit^d, hoping to get higher wages. They quit Monday a.m. They are two good hired men and English at that but there is a lot more coming to take their places."
Also quitting were Albert Reed, Tom Marks, Charles Duck and George Duare.
- 27 Mar Four new Englishmen came in evening. Very snowy and blowy. "Secretary of State Scribner and his family ~~read~~^{left} out to see the Shakers. They were on the road two hours and were very unprepared for the cold."
A woman ~~walked~~ from Waterford walked from the depot with her little boy to have him taken.
- 28 Mar Woman and boy taken back to depot.
- 1 April Mark Male has begun working for CM, at present helping Philip Wiseman at the sawmill because they have so much sawing to do for the 2d Family.
- 2 April James Mucker (d'or something like it") began working for CF.
- 3 April Charles Duck has gone to work for the Cregiers, hoping to get more money.
- 4 April "In the afternoon nearly every sister went to the Stone Shop to attend a concert got up by the juveniles. They spoke pieces, sang and played on the cordion. We all enjoyed it right well. They had refreshment, candies etc."
- 8 April "Charles Hooper and Mark Male went to Albany to start some of their English friends on their way west, to pay their fare, get their tickets, etc. for they cannot read."
"The places are all filled that the other men left and new applications are daily made."
- 9 April Lydia is trimming off splint baskets.
- 11 April Samantha is working at Deaconesses Shop making some "draw baskets."
- 12 April Two carriages from Schenectady - children and grandchildren of Dr. Nott, President of Union College, broke a spring on one of their carriages. Chas. Hooper mended it for them. They had lunch, bought a number of baskets, looked around some and returned home.