

- 19 Aug Elder Austin, Nehemiah, Maria Gillett, Katie Hallenbeck and Ella Benedict started for Saratoga Springs. Back on 21st.
- 21 Aug Dog has been in sheep again, damaged between 20-30. Brethren tracked dogs "to or near neighbor Hills and found the tracks exactly fitted but the old lady declared the dog was in the house all night."
- 23 Aug The woman who purported to be the wife of Mike Socks a beggar, an idiot. They are both in the penitentiary.
- 29 Aug About 2 a.m. they heard a gun go off and Daniel had caught a dog in a trap he had set when the sheep were killed. They killed the dog, put him on a wheelbarrow and brought it to the house. Some after breakfast, Elder Albert and Brother Galen of SF came and said dogs had been at their sheep and bit nearly 20 of them. Also had been in WF sheep. After dinner John Hill came and admitted it was his dog. They opened the dog and found wool and part of a sheep's bag so there was no mistake they had one of the sheep killers.
- 22 Sept Mary Call's mother and stepfather came and would have been pleased to have Mary go with them but behaved well.
- 9 Oct Man named Goodrich came about bedtime, walked from depot, is 73, hale and hearty. Is grandson of Pitman Cook, nephew of Thankful Goodrich of Mt. Lebanon Church Family. He intends to visit at Hancock and neighborhood where he has friends.
- 10 Oct Fri. A young man came and stayed all night. He and Bro. Goodrich had a grand time, they sung and carried parts in the evening meeting, happy as two boys."
- 15 Oct Lydia finished "picking out husks" - the husks from which corn had been cut for drying or canning. She has been working on it for 6 weeks whenever she could with whatever help she could get and has produced about 600 lbs. Lydia put seats in two large arm chairs.
- 16 Oct No. 6 armchair that had been ordered was taken to Troy - got $8.00.
- 22 Oct C Miller went to West Albany to have papers drawn up relative to renting the river farm.
- 27 Oct John Twiss and his wife came to see their uncle Albert at NF.
- 29 Oct Jesse went to Troy and carried a large armchair to one of the Wiswells and got the pay. Geo. Wickersham and Orrin Haskins came after "the ministry's old riding sleigh. Freegift made it for Mother Lucy Wright in her day. Elder Frederick (Evans) is to have it by paying something for it."
- 2 Nov Sat. "Some fiend attempted to burn the SF mill by placing a pan of oil afire with inflammable stuff nearby. Someone saw the fire coming through the roof and made the alarm and it was extinguished with very little loss."
- 5 Nov "Lydia went to the weave shop to do some twisting."
"Mrs. Fort, the flower woman as we call her, came after husks for a bed. She paid $3 for 30#."