

- 9 May A carpenter, Fellows, came and put in two dormer (she spells "dormant") windows in the Office to replace skylights.
- 12 May Five masons (slaters) ^{come} ~~came~~ to slate the Office and another mason to mend the chimneys.
- 13 May Chimney man finished and goes home after supper. Mended all four chimneys, painted them and put a top on SW one, hoping it will prevent its smoking.
- 14 May Slaters finish except for Ireland's son. Sisters clean up all the debris around the building.
- 5 June "Sarah Dean is not expected to live and she is very anxious to see Eldress Ann."
- 6 June Eldress Ann and Polly were taken to Albany to take cars for Mt. Lebanon. Home on June 9.
- 13 June "Brother George Price was moved to the NF to take charge and Brother Chauncy Copley is gathered home. (This means he came back to CF to live.) He is 70 and has borne a heavy burden over 40 years."
- 16 June C. Copley was coming home from Albany - "had been to settle up something."
- 17 June There was supposed to be a great meeting at Schodack or 1/2 way between WaterVliet and Mt. Lebanon, of Ministry and two wagonloads from Wvlt and three loads from ML but did not go because it was raining.
- 18 June Wvlt party started before 4 a.m. (C. Copley and 5 sisters in an open wagon, Philip Smith and 5 young sisters in covered wagon), arrived at Schodack about 8 and were welcomed by Wvlt Ministry who had gone ahead. "They watched and waited and waited and watched till about noon and even sent a messenger to Nassau to see if they had mistaken the place but no they did not leave home. Our folks came home about 6."
- 20 June Sat. "About 10 p.m. some sisters heard a great noise in the barn. C. Miller got up and went out and Jack, Jesse's horse, was in distress. He let it out of the barn and went to get a light, when the horse went under the shed and dropped dead."
- 22 June CM went to Troy to hear the everlasting cabbage case argued before the referee.
- 24 June C. Copley and Geo. Price leave for Baltimore. Home on 27th.
- 30 June Geo. Duck went to Albany and on to NYCity expecting to get his wife and children from England. Took them to Sarah Ann's for the present.
- 1 July Tried again for the meeting at Schodack and this time it worked.
- 7 July Katharine Smith, Philip's mother, came to visit - has not been here in 18 years.
- 9 July C. Copley took Eldresses Lucy and Aurelia to Albany to see about taking some shirts to make.
- 13 July Eldresses Lucy & Aurelia got a shirt together but it did not seem right.
- 14 July CC took them back to Albany to see about the shirts.