

- 4 April Mark Male leaves today. He and James Tribley have hired a place.
"Janett (Angus) is really sick. I hope she will live."
- 8 April Frank Hall's uncle came after him, had a writ of habeas Corpus.
Amelia came and took her leave of them."
- 11 Apr "Eldress Lucy Fuller has gone to the Second House this morning. She has been sick some time but would not give up till now."
- 15 Apr Eldress Lucy is much worse since noon.
- 16 Apr Eldress Lucy died. "She had watchers last night for the first time. She was born Sept 5, 1813. Came among Shakers at 9 years of age."
- 18 Apr Sun. We had our funeral at 2:30. Most of the families came. She had a beautiful funeral, none too much. Katie Hallenbeck had a splendid piece that Eldress Asenath gave Aurelia. Had some nice verses and there were two new songs for her. It was none too much."
- 20 Apr Eldress Ann came from Mt. Lebanon Ministry.
- 24 Apr Sat. Eldress Ann appointed Lydia to take Eldress Lucy's place and Abbie to come to the Office in Lydia's place.
- (Before this, I think Lydia has been the author of the journal; after this I think Samantha Bowie is.)
- 26 Apr The moving has commenced. Lydia is picking up her things to leave the Office. Elder Giles started for Hudson to attend the trial of Charles Harris (he has been apprehended as the arsonist who torched the Mt. Lebanon buildings.)
- 27 Apr "Elder Daniel received a telegram to go to Hudson, his testimony is wanted. Eldress Ann is all around as busy as a bee. Lydia is busy at work getting her things together. They have the measles very bad at SF."
- 29 Apr Charles Harris is convicted of arson in second degree and sentenced to state prison for 10 years for the first fire and 4 years for the 2d fire.
- 30 Apr "CM sent for Mark Male to come and work for Edwin (Male). His dear daughter died this morning about 8. She has been sick about 3 weeks with brain fever."
- 1 May Lydia has her things about moved. She has moved her bed so she will be Eldress Lydia now. Abbie has moved all her things to the Office. "Ruth & Barbara and Eliza Haines walked down to Sarah Ann's to look at the corpse of little Martha. Her mother feels very bad, she was in her 13th year."
- 2 May Hired men also go to the funeral. CM lets them take 3 teams.
- 3 May "The Clayton boys' mother came to see them. They had written to her about the children and wanted her to take them, so she came, and the brethren concluded to keep them and try them some longer."
