

- 11 Jan. Rain and hail. CC came home soon after dinner completed glazed over with ice.
- 12 Elijah Slosson and his son came over 100 miles to see Nathan & Jonathan, not knowing they were both dead. Have drawn 19 loads of basswood plank.
- 14 A young woman came to intercede for her two little sisters. She was given permission to take them to the SF.
- 17 Went to Ida Mills with a handkerchief for a sample to make for Shakers.
- 27 BSYoungs and Frederick Evans spoke in public meeting, Evans about an hour, BSY 15 minutes. some of the Legislature came and the Governor's secretary-- got dinner for 9 including drivers.
- 9 Feb Got the handkerchiefs from Ida Mills and sold 19 to the SF for their sisters.
- 10 Snyder from Columbia County has brought a bill in the Senate concerning Shaker property.
- 11 <sup>FSW</sup> Frederick went to Albany to see about the bill, brought home a copy.
- 12 WF also took 19 handkerchiefs for their sisters for $5.60.
- 14 Francis Chase came from Canaan and asked CM "to give up Sands of NYC to them to trade with altogether."
Two men came to get all the sweet corn they could. Were sold 30 bushels at $4/bu.
- 15 Frederick and others came home from Albany. "They had lost all their labor, what the result will be, time will decide.
- 19 Went to Ida Mills and "found they were unable or unwilling to make the dark blue handkerchief they had agreed to unless they could make a large quantity of them."
Took George Price to Dr. March to have a piece of steel taken from his eye.
- 21 "SB, Smith Taylor and Wm went to Pleasant Hill to put the endless chain in the well and get it to work but found it an endless job as everything had been before pertaining to the well, for the chain broke and they came home and left it in the bottom of the well."
Loren began sawing timber for the new barn.
- 23 Sat Bishop, Barnes & Maxon from Madison County came with their wives and had dinner.
- 24 Sun Sen. Mann, Sec. of State Morgan and a number more women, 7 including drivers, had dinner. "Elder Brother opened a gift in the morning meeting for everyone to select something in the Bible or of Mother. The first Elders to bring forward in the afternoon meeting. Accordingly all united and we had a good meeting. Some read, others spoke, what they could remember.
- 25 Frederick went to Albany, saw some of the members that are friendly, talked with them some about Mr. Snyder's resolutions.
- 1 March "This day we keep in commemoration of our blessed Mother Ann. We all improved in speaking or reading a verse in Scripture or some of the first elders' words or some good son. All the family united in this gift. We truly had a very pretty meeting."