

- 17 Mar SF brought 100 doz. bonnets, packed in two boxes.
"This is St. Patrick's Day & all the paddies went to keep the day."
- 18 CC went to Schenectady with Henry Watson to see about burying Henry's father. CC bought a coffin for $5.50.
"There was a most destructive wind after noon in this place; a large portion of the tin ripped from the new barn & had it not been for the courage & perseverance of the brethren it would have been all torn off. They went up, tied on with ropes, & nailed slats on the tin. The west chimney on the new part of the Dwelling House was blown off; Meeting House roof was seen in motion & a number of bricks were blown off of the chimney. A great deal of damage at NF -- 2 chimneys on Dwelling & entire roof of new machine shop & it stove in one side of timber shed. Many trees down. $1000 damage at CF & NF; others more fortunate."
- 22 CM saw Benjamin Marshall in Troy about making cloth for western people.
- 23 Burning out chimneys. About 2 pm bell on Dwelling House rang & everyone alarmed. The fire had caught near the bottom of the chimney--they could do nothing toward putting the fire out until they chopped a hole through the floor in the passageway..."
- 26 Exceedingly cold & windy. No meeting in Meeting House and "we have to attend in rather a cold room in the Dwelling House for it has been too cold to get the chimney mended since it was blown off a week ago yesterday."
- 3 Apr CM started for Canaan 4 Corners after the covered riding wagon taken these last fall to be painted & fixed in style. Returned 4th.
- 5 A mason came & repaired the chimneys & put up the "turkey buzzard" on Elder Brother's chimney that was blown down.
- 8 Lydia (Annas) came out of the kitchen. She has a number of boils on her back, shoulders & she went to the 2d House after dinner & took some physick.
- 18 Cyrus Bates broke his leg somehow jumping on one of his colts.
- 20 Hired men drawing dirt away from the old Meeting House & putting it back of the Office.
- 28 Ministry brothers, Elders & Deacons had meeting about painting the Meeting House & fixing the out buildings.
- 30 A young man, nephew of David Cole, was found drowned in SF pond; he had set out to be a Believer one week ago. (Bethuel Shout - 17 yrs old)
- 5 May John Hendrickson hung in Albany for the murder of his wife.
- 7 (Sun) Ministry sisters had all the sisters together this morning at 8:00. At 9 there was general singing meeting; all attended except Eldress Asenath (White). Public meeting today and the 2d Order came in afternoon.
- 8 Have painted Meeting House roof, now begin painting the building, the roofs of the small buildings back of the MH and the fence pickets.