

- 25 Mar CM made some measures & calculations about the washhouse.
- 28 CC, Jesse, CM & DS went to Pleasant Hill to make arrangements about building a house on the farm.
- 7 April Received an express order for bonnets. Send messenger to NF.
- 8 Sisters of NF brought 22 doz. bonnets for sale.
- 13 Adelaide Ingham taken to Dr. March & had something cut out of her mouth. Chris Talbot & his family moved on to the Island.
- 18 Masons come to lath & plaster washhouse.
- 19 "A Dutch woman came to help rake the dooryard & lane by the Office."
- 21 "CM plowed in the medical garden."
- 22 The sisters are very much engaged in making bonnets for sale. "There is a great call for them."
- 25 PAB began knitting "black silk nets" for sale.
- 26 "John Jack has gone on a journey of his own contriving, not expected to return."
- 28 A German woman came here from beyond Vischers Ferry who wanted two boys taken.
- 29 "Old Charley, the white horse, takes his exit from this world of trouble; Maynard sees that he is buried decently, his age is about 24 years."
- 30 Some of the brethren went after the two German boys.
- 2 May School opened - 52 students. (These would have been all girls.)
- 16 A woman came here with a little ^{girl} ~~A~~ she wanted us to take. We did. She is from Cohoes.
- 20 "C. Prentiss had a large table made for the back door. I painted it." A. Messenger & Lucy Bates cleaned & oiled the kitchen floors.
- 21 (Sat) Last night we had quite a parcel of shirts & shifts & other things stolen out of the dooryard.
- 23 Chris Talbot came to turn broom handles. We have 17 hired men.
- 26 Patty, James & Wm. Bates came to see Lucy; they all went to the SF to see Irena Bates. "Something concerning some property which belongs to them."
- 27 "Masons went to the Island to under pin the barn. They have raised the barn higher on account of the water coming into it when the river rises." "There is no peace to the wind today but blow, blow."
- 30 CM & DS went to Schenectady in search of Dick who has strayed away from home or been stolen. Some of the neighbors came with Dick before the brethren got home.